Section 105.1.1

Question:

Is it the intent of section 105.1.1 to allow school boards to issue an annual maintenance permit for a facility to cover renovation and remodel work done by non school board employees (i.e. outside contractors)

Answer

Yes, school boards are allowed to use annual maintenance permits for SMALL scopes of work that fall under the limitations of an annual maintenance permit. The descriptions indicated in the above comment are too general to determine if they would fall under an annual maintenance permit.

Commentary:

none.
