Section 105

Question:

Is it the intent of this Code, that all jurisdictions in Florida are authorized to set a "value threshold" for permit requirements for single family home improvements?

Answer

No, Section 102.2.5 leaves the permitting administration to each enforcement district. As stated in 102.2.5 #1. At its own option, each enforcement district or local enforcement agency may adopt rules granting to the owner of a single-family residence one or more exceptions from the Florida Building Code.
